

MARKUS F. BRINKMANN

~ London ~

D.O.B: 18.03.1980 Phone: +49 (0) 79 4162 7762 E-mail: markus@brinkmann.co.uk

PERSONAL PROFILE:

I am a reliable employee with the ability to meet deadlines and work under pressure whilst maintaining professionalism and a sense of humour. In addition, my language skills have enabled me to work successfully on various projects in Asia, Africa, Europe and the Middle East. Currently I am striving to work for an organisation that will provide me with a platform to reach my personal and professional career goals.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY:

Jan 08 – Present SPS London Ltd

London, England

Shipbroker

- Fixing vessels for Heavy Lift and Dry Cargo tonnage
- Managing the operation of various Heavy Lift and Dry Cargo fixtures
- Developing numerous BIMCO Conline, Gencon, Heavycon and NYPE Charter Parties
- Developing emerging projects such as new Zinc Mines in Greenland, Benguela Railway in Congo, Ore Mines in Burkina Faso and industrial developments in Belgium as well as Greece
- Managing the creative aspects of the company including developing the company website
- Developing new monitoring, communication and operational systems

Jun 07 – Dec 07 OPUS MARINE GmbH

Hamburg, Germany

Project Manager (six months contract)

- Fixed and managed Heavy Lift transports in northern Europe.
- Managed and evaluated the cost of fuel, hire of ships and crew for transports in Europe
- Managed the pre-construction stage of the intake and outfall of the biggest Liquefied Natural Gas Plant in the World, contracted to Yemgas, Muhibba and Total
- Managed the construction of new Offshore Platforms and Support Vessels
- Supervised salvage ships and objects in Europe and Africa
- Organised office and ship ISM/ISPS meetings

Sep 05 – Sep 06 JOHN T. ESSBERGER

Hamburg, Germany

Nautical Assistant Officer

- Planned and evaluated fuel consumption and routes for the voyage
- Provided lectures to crew members on Health and Safety
- Supervised repair teams to restore hull and engine
- Assisted Officers on their bridge watch
- Developed daily reports on the ship and crew

Apr 05 – Aug 06 ELBREDEREI ABICHT Hamburg, Germany
Skipper and Officer

- Managed tourist boats in Hamburg Harbour
- Conducted repairs on the hull and engine

Jun 98 – Feb 04 FREELANCE DESIGNER London, England
Co-Founder and Manager of Morrow Design Ltd.

- Developed a Hydrogen Fuel Petrol Station for H2 Cars
- Presented Templecraft Yacht Charters at the London Boat Show
- Managed a team of eight Photographers and Videographers for England's Medieval Festival
- Developed new transaction concepts for the electronic company, Philips

EDUCATION:

Sep 07 – Aug 08 UNIVERSITY OF GREENWICH
MSc Marine Engineering and Management

Sep 05 – Aug 07 HOCHSCHULE BREMEN, UNIVERSITY OF APPLIED SCIENCE
Dipl.-Ing. Industrial Engineering for Marine Traffic (Master Mariner)

Sep 03 – Aug 05 OBERHAFENAMT HAMBURG
Hamburg Harbour Ship Steering Certificate

Sep 00 – Aug 03 RAVENSBORNE COLLEGE
Bachelor (Hons) Industrial Design

ACTIVITIES:

Sep 05 – Aug 07 HOCHSCHULE BREMEN, UNIVERSITY OF APPLIED SCIENCE
Student Representative: Responsibilities included selecting new tutors and reviewing the curriculum

Aug 02 – Jun 03 RAVENSBORNE COLLEGE
Student Representative: Responsible for steering the development of facilities on behalf of the students

LANGUAGES:

English (Advance), German (Advance), French (Basic), Greek (Basic)

INTERESTS:

I enjoy spending time with my wife, family and friends. I am keen on travelling and I often travel to a range of Countries around the World. I am enthusiastic about the global economy, modern art, design, music and keeping active through sailing and swimming.